

Guidelines on Establishment of Alumni Association of Department of Industrial Management at I-Shou University

Adopted on July 24, 2006 by the Departmental Affairs Council

Adopted on February 17, 2012 by the Departmental Affairs Council

- I. The Guidelines on Establishment of Alumni Association of Department of Industrial Management at I-Shou University are established by the Department of Industrial Management (hereinafter referred to as the “Department”) pursuant to the Guidelines on Establishment of Organizations of Department of Industrial Management at I-Shou University and Guidelines on Establishment of Relevant Committee of Department of Industrial Management at I-Shou University.
- II. All graduates from the Department shall be ex-officio members of the Alumni Association of Department of Industrial Management at I-Shou University (hereinafter referred to as the “Association”).
- III. The regulations of the Association shall record the following items:
 1. Title of the Association.
 2. Mission of the Association.
 3. Location (as in the location of the Department).
 4. Qualification of membership.
 5. Rights and obligation of members.
 6. Duties and tenures of each position in the Association.
 7. Procedures and time for the meeting of the Association.
 8. Sources of funds.
 9. Procedures of adoption and amendments on regulations.
- IV. The Guidelines become effective after being adopted by the Departmental Affairs Council. The same procedure applies to any amendment to the Regulations.

Note : In the event of any disputes or misunderstanding as to the interpretation of the language or terms of these Guidelines, the Chinese language version shall prevail.